

TOO MUCH DOG DEFEATS MESA

The bowling match last night between Mesa and the Phoenix steam laundry was very much one-sided, Mesa only rolling two men and three dogs.

The Phoenix steam laundry rolled good scores in all three games. Fletcher, at the steam laundry team, was not up to his regular game. Cross rolled the highest average for the evening, 198.

H. DUFFY TO COACH BRAVES NEXT SEASON

Hugh Duffy.

BOSTON, Feb. 26.—Hugh Duffy, one of baseball's greatest outfielders when in his prime, is booked to take the job with the Boston Braves made vacant by Fred Mitchell when the latter went to the Cubs. Duffy is considered to be among the wisest heads in the game and an ideal man to take the coaching job under George Stallings.

After leaving active playing in the big leagues, Duffy managed in the minors and for several seasons past has been in the New England league. Two years ago Hugh Duffy, Lou Pierce and "Kitty" Bransfield, a trio of the game's greatest stars, were all working in the New England league. Bransfield was umpiring there and his high class officiating has won him a job in the National league.

Duffy at present is coaching the Harvard baseball squad. At the close of the college season he will report to the Braves and start his work of coaching the younger players.

COYOTE TRACKS

News And Comment
Of The
High School
By Louis Hart

Chandler will journey all the way over to Phoenix to meet the Coyote nine at the high school. We beat them away from home easy enough, but when the team meets them Saturday it will be a slaughter.

The sixth annual interscholastic championships at Tucson will be held April 16 to the 21. Save all the nickels you can, because there will be a hot time in the old town when the Coyote club takes possession of the Old Pueblo.

Only 12 more weeks of school. Are you glad? The Freshmen are because they will only have three more years of it.

Every senior must give an oration before he will get his credit in English. Silver tanned orators aired their thoughts and opinions during the first hour yesterday just for a credit. They not only used their own air but everybody else's. "Bright sunshine."

Miss Stokes and Walter Stokes were both at the Spanish play. Now these two Stokes are not married, but their names are alike.

Seniors will have a class meeting sometime today. Mr. surprise for them, too. Principal Cook will not let us tell you but everyone will find out soon enough.

Ed Brooks, the famous football star on the coast, wrote a nice long letter giving the students his fatherly advice and love to stick to athletics and uphold the honor won by the alumni. He reads the papers daily and has kept in close touch with the school ever since his graduation.

Albert C. Finney wrote a very good ad for the Coyote paper and it should be published. He is right about the patronizing of home industry. If the students want a successful annual and school paper they better take heed and spend their money at home. Every little nickel spent here in Phoenix means an ad for the annual or the Coyote.

Talking about the weather, there is nothing to be said.

The popularity contest has even caused a sensation with the Republican force. We cannot even get into the door before someone shouts, "Where is the head?" If one of the grumpy contestants would come off to the office she could easily walk off with a few thousand votes.

All the students will eat spinach on Saint Patrick's day.

Andrew Adams is the best looking chap in school. Bert Doris is the queerest, and Frank Wartman is the ugliest of the school. What are the faculty? Why, there are the teachers. "Do tell."

Coyote popularity contest will end Wednesday afternoon. Every one wishing to vote for their candidates will have to hurry. The circulation department has grown a few hundred since the race for popularity started. Maude Stewart is still in the lead. Maude Kilpatrick is making the event real interesting. She is now holding second place, only a few thousand votes behind Miss Stewart.

Maude Stewart	679,000
Maude Kilpatrick	515,000
Meredith Bishop	425,000

The others have not been heard of.

from. Their figures are about the same and were published last week.

New school songs have been printed and will be distributed. Colleges, state, school and national songs are all on the new list.

Mrs. R. Thorne Cook will entertain the Senior class, joint of educational faculty and the secretary, Miss Jennie Bone, in the west wing Friday evening. Miss McAfee and Miss Work will assist. A big program with music and refreshments are being planned.

TWO BANTAM VETERANS ARE STILL ABLE TO MAKE IT HOT FOR THE YOUNGSTERS

New stars are springing up in the bantamweight division every season, but there are still two veterans who are able to set a pace for the younger boys. Frankie Burns and Johnny Coulon were stars in the bantam class when some of the present bantams were wearing short pants and Frankie Burns and Johnny Coulon, though veterans, are not yet has-been by any means.

Frankie Burns has never held the title, but he seems to deserve it more than a few of those who are now claiming it. Burns is recognized by many as the most skillful boxer and the cleverest in the class and he is able to hit when needed. Not much more than a year ago he knocked out Kid Herman, the southern boy who is now claiming the bantam title. He boxed Kid Williams one of the most spectacular draws ever staged in New Orleans. He has also boxed one Lynch, Jack Sharkey, Memphis Pat Moore, one of the leaders of the class, and several times has met Johnny Coulon, both before and after the latter held the title. Burns is not claiming the bantam crown and never has, though he seems to have a good claim on it as a few of those who are.

Frankie says that he'll continue to beat all the bantams in the country till he is finally the champion beyond any question. The surprising thing about Burns' performance is that he is one of the quietest bantams in the class today and yet is able to go as strong as ever.

Johnny Coulon, the other bantam vet, is making a strong bid for a comeback and from what he has been showing within the past six months or so it looks like he will do it. Under the management of Nate Lewis, Coulon is going after the best of the bantams and is reported to be showing the speed and strength of his heyday. Coulon is keeping busy with several matches booked ahead all the while. He is matched for a bout in Philadelphia February 26 and on March 5 he will box a return go with Jack Sharkey in New York. Coulon's recent battles have interested fight fans everywhere, most of whom had thought the little ex-champ had seen his last days in the ring several years ago.

The concrete paving new being laid on 11th avenue, in front of the state house, is said to be the best ever constructed in Arizona. The work is being done by day labor under the supervision of the board of control and will cost about $1.50 per square yard.

At least four blocks of the concrete paving will be laid during the present operations, and there is a possibility that six blocks will be constructed. It was at first planned to pave 11th avenue with Topok top, but members of the board of control are well satisfied with the concrete paving and they are considering a change of specifications for 11th avenue.

The pavement on 11th avenue is being reinforced because of the width of the street. Other streets will, however, no reinforcement will be necessary.

BABBITT-POLSON BRANCHING OUT

W. E. Gardner, Jerome manager of the Babbitt-Polson company, returned to Phoenix last evening from El Paso where he has been spending the past two weeks introducing the Jordan car. A Babbitt-Polson agency has recently been established at the Pass City and the results from sales have surpassed the fondest expectations.

Mr. Gardner found little difficulty in promoting and stimulating Jordan sales in Texas. In fact his efforts met with such gigantic success that the entire stock of cars was completely sold out within a few days. Many sales were also recorded for future delivery. It was stated that sufficient orders for future deliveries were taken to utilize all machines now en route to El Paso.

According to the report given by Mr. Gardner, the Jordan created a tremendous sensation in western Texas. It was received with greater enthusiasm than the Babbitt-Polson agency had anticipated, he stated.

INTOXICATED DRIVER GIVEN STIFF FINE

Convicted in police court yesterday afternoon of driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition, A. R. Chretien, in addition to being assessed a fine of fifty dollars, was given a city jail sentence of twenty days. According to the police, Chretien threw four into the hearts of scores of residents living in the vicinity of Seventh avenue and McKinley street Sunday morning, when he sent his automobile zig-zagging about the streets threatening disaster to pedestrians and other machines.

Policeman Robert Anderson arrived while the gaities were at their height and took Chretien in tow. He was a greatly surprised and annoyed individual when sentence was pronounced. C. Burgeon, who was riding with Chretien, was assessed a fine of five dollars or five days in jail. He paid.

RAILROADS FORCE DRASTIC ACTION

The Arizona corporation commission is again going to the mat with the railroads.

The State, the Phoenix and Phoenix railroad has announced increases on livestock shipments from Cinder Pit and points along the main line, such as Navajo, Holbrook, Winslow, Flagstaff and Williams, to Denver, Trinidad, Hawkey and other points in Colorado. The new rates, which will become effective March 15 unless before the commission to forestall the action are successful, will average about 15 per cent.

A suspension petition was filed by the corporation yesterday with the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, protesting against the advance on livestock shipments. The petition requests that the increases be suspended pending an investigation.

Thousands of dollars annually are involved in the proposed increases, it is stated.

Carl Morris Is Not Very Likely To Meet Jess Willard For Title

Carl Morris, heavyweight fighter, and several years ago hailed as a real "white hope" is now planning a campaign that will hard him on the heavy-weight throne. Morris believes that he is more worthy of a chance at Willard's crown than Fred Fulton, although in view of Fulton's recent success it will be hard for Morris to persuade the average fight fan that this is the case.

Morris is now under the management of "Doc" Lewis. Charles White, manager and he believes that Lewis will steer him to the crown he desires. One little item that may interfere with Morris' plans is Willard's statement that he will never fight Morris in any manner, how great are the inducements. That at least Jess Willard is really worth a 15-round bout with Morris was recently proposed to Lewis, who was asked if he cared to negotiate with Morris.

"No, sir," said Willard, with deep conviction. "I would not dignify Mr. Morris with any such negotiations. If it ever comes to the point where there are no other heavyweights left except Morris, there will be no more championship battles if I still hold the title."

It is said that Willard once challenged Morris and the latter, in declining to give him a match, referred to him as a "big arm" who had no claim to recognition from anybody. Jess never forgave that alleged remark.

The champion is notoriously shy and never forgets a knock. Criticisms heaped upon him by New York critics at the time of the battle with Moran stung him so badly that he once declared he never would fight in New York again at any price, and it is probable that Grant Hugh Brown is the only New York promoter who stands any chance to do business with him.

CARL MORRIS PLANS PURSUIT OF TITLE

Carl Morris.

In New York again at any price, and it is probable that Grant Hugh Brown is the only New York promoter who stands any chance to do business with him.

MRS. PIG PRESENTS THREE CHILDREN TO GRACE CITY POUND

Among the activities of the police Sunday was the arrest of a woman, early active sow. The animal had been discovered in the act of wandering over green lawns and rooting up flower beds in the residence district. She was taken to the city pound.

Yesterday the police paid an official visit to the sow and were sworn with amazement when it was found that during the night she had acquired three healthy shoots or baby pigs. Now the officers are in a quandary. The city has no claim upon the pig, other than a regular pound fee. Certainly the arresting officers made no mention of taking three shoots into custody. The owner of the pig can probably prove that he is also proprietor of the shoots, but so far the owner has failed to appear.

The city has not yet engaged in the hog raising business and it has no contract with Hurry Hickey to furnish pigs to be fed upon city garbage. So particular description of the pig has been furnished by the arresting officer. He says, "This is pigs," so that's all there is to it.

The owner of the sow, and ex-officio owner of the shoots, is asked to visit the police station and identify his property.

Incidentally the police have taken up a bay horse and an iron gray horse, which are being held at the Phoenix stable. They will be sold for stable hire in a few days unless claimed by their owners.

It is stated as a considerable tonnage of livestock is shipped between these points. It is contended that such an advance will work a hardship with the livestock dealers of the state.

This is the third or fourth suspension petition filed by the commission against proposed increases in rates within the past few months.

HOLMES LEAVES; LANDIS GIRL TO ESCAPE PRISON

With the possibility of a state prison sentence staring her in the face, when S. G. Holmes yesterday swung to a complaint charging her with grand larceny, Grace Landis, a pretty nineteen year old girl, arrested by Policemen McGrath and Stratty, thought she saw a way out of her predicament when Holmes announced that he was obliged to leave at once for the coast and would be unable to be on hand to press his charges. But the police again stepped in, preferred a charge of prostitution against the girl and landed her behind the bars of the city jail to serve a sentence of twenty-five days imposed by City Magistrate Frank Thomas. In addition to the jail sentence, she will be required to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars or furnish another twenty-five days in the city house.

As reported in the Arizona Republican yesterday morning, Holmes and the Landis girl went for a joy ride last Sunday evening. During the course of the ride, Holmes became groggy and when he awoke, his money was missing. He said he had ninety-five dollars. Policemen McGrath and Stratty found the Landis girl in a hotel at Tempe and placed her under arrest. She admitted taking seventy-five dollars from Holmes, but explained herself by saying that if she hadn't taken the money somebody else would. She turned over sixty dollars to the police, claiming she had paid a chauffeur twenty dollars to make a quick run to Tempe.

The sixty dollars found in the possession of the girl was yesterday given to Holmes and he announced that he would leave for Los Angeles at once. He had been an employee of Shattuck and Stephens at Chandler.
